First time in Belgium?

Electricity Plug Type: Belgium uses Type E and Type C electrical plugs. The standard voltage is 230 V, and the standard frequency is 50 Hz. If you're travelling from a country with a different plug type, you may need a plug adapter. It's a good idea to bring one with you to charge your electronic devices.

Weather in Namur: The weather in Namur can vary depending on the time of year. November: Autumn sees cooler temperatures ranging from 5°C to 10°C (41°F to 50°F) with a chance of rain or snow. Pack a mix of clothing as the weather can be quite chilly, so it's advisable to dress in layers. and bring an umbrella.

Emergency Number: In case of emergencies, dial 112. This number will connect you to the appropriate emergency services, including police, fire, and medical assistance.

Dial Code for Belgium: The international dial code for Belgium is +32. If you need to make international calls, remember to add this prefix before the local number.

Local Time in Belgium: Belgium is in the Central European Time (CET) zone, which is GMT+1 during standard time.

Money

- Currency: The official currency in Belgium is the Euro (€). It is abbreviated as EUR. It's recommended to have some Euros on hand for small expenses.
- ATMs: There are ATM machines available at the airport upon arrival in Brussels. It's a convenient way to withdraw Euros if you need local currency.

Opening Hours

- Shops: Shops in Namur typically open at around 10:00 AM and close around 6:00 PM. Some larger stores may have extended hours, especially in the city center.
- Restaurants and Cafes: The opening hours for restaurants and cafes in Namur can vary. Lunch is often served between 12:00 PM and 3:00 PM, while dinner service usually starts from 6:00 PM and can continue into the late evening. However, it's a good idea to check specific establishments for their opening hours, especially if you plan to dine out.
